

AUGUST 2025

WWW.VFTPO.ORG

PEDAL POWER: BICYCLE SAFETY TAKES THE SPOTLIGHT AT THE DELTONA LIBRARY CARNIVAL

On August 1st, the TPO joined the Deltona Library's Annual Back to School Carnival to fit children attending for new bicycle helmets. TPO staff (Colleen Nicoulin, Stephan Harris and Pamela Blankenship), along with the help of TPO Bicycle/Pedestrian Advisory Committee (BPAC) members Victor Ramos and Bob Storke, fit 108 children for new bicycle helmets. It was a great time for all attendees!

Left to Right: BPAC member Victor Ramos, TPO staff Stephan Harris, Colleen Nicoulin, Pamela Blankenship, and BPAC/CAC member Bob Storke

Left: Two children fitted with new bicycle helmets

Right: A child being fitted for a new bicycle helmet by Stephan Harris

VOLUSIA FLAGLER 2050

Volusia-Flagler 2050 Long Range Transportation Plan

The Draft 2050 LRTP and Cost Feasible Plan Element are available for public review and comment at:
Volusia-Flagler 2050

The Volusia-Flagler TPO Board is expected to take action on the Volusia-Flagler 2050 Long Range Transportation Plan at its scheduled meeting on:
Wednesday, September 17, 2025
9:00 am
Volusia-Flagler TPO Conference Room
1540 Cornerstone Blvd. Suite 240
Daytona Beach, FL 32117

More Outreach Activities:

In addition to the Deltona Back to School Carnival, the TPO participated in the Flagler County Back to School Jam on Saturday, August 2nd at Flagler-Palm Coast High School and on August 22nd, a sign-waving pedestrian safety event in Flagler County on Oceanshore Boulevard at Gamble Rogers State Park

Outreach Activities Coming Up:

September 13: New Smyrna Beach Library How-To Festival
October 8: VCARD Icebreaker
October 11: Port Orange Family Days
October 15: White Cane Awareness Day
November 20: FACT Fair at Deltona Middle School

National Stop on Red Week

On August 7, 2025, the Volusia-Flagler TPO joined the Florida Department of Transportation, the City of Daytona Beach, Volusia County, and the National Coalition for Safer Roads for a Stop on Red Week event which included a press conference followed by local community partners waving “Stop on Red” signs in an effort to raise awareness about the dangers of red-light running.

Above: Attendees of the Stop on Red Week event

Left: Melissa Wandall, President of the National Coalition for Safer Roads speaking at the press conference

Ongoing Projects & Activities

- Implementation of Operation Best Foot Forward for Pedestrian Safety Program (Flagler County)
- Adoption of Volusia-Flagler 2050 Long Range Transportation Plan (LRTP)
- TPO Apportionment Implementation
- Approval of Bicycle/Pedestrian and Traffic Operations/Safety Feasibility Studies
- Volusia-Flagler TPO FY 2024/25 Financial Audit
- Implementation of Vision Zero Action Plan (VZAP)
- Review of TPO Annual Priority Project Process and Resolutions

The TPO’s Vision Zero Action Plan (VZAP) was adopted by the TPO Board on June 26th
View the VZAP
View the StoryMap

