PORT ORANGE REGIONAL LIBRARY HOW-TO FESTIVAL

Volusia County Public Library's 2026 How-To Festival brought more than 8,000 participants to all six regional library locations on Saturday, September 12th for a day of learning, hands-on activities, and community knowledge sharing. The TPO participated at the Port Orange Regional Library by hosting a table and teaching attendees how to be street smart while walking, biking, scootering, and driving. We spoke with more than 120 people about e-bikes, teen graduated licensing, and much more. Staff was joined by TPO Board members Vice Mayor Tracy Grubbs (Port Orange) and Commissioner Chris Conomos (Daytona Beach Shores), and shared bicycle, pedestrian, and driver safety information and items such as bike lights and reflective vests and backpacks.

VCARD Icebreaker

On September 17th, the Volusia-Flagler TPO hosted a table at the VCARD Icebreaker. This annual event, held at the LPGA Clubhouse in Daytona Beach, brings together local government officials, industry experts, and community leaders to share ideas and build valuable connections. TPO staff discussed the purpose of the organization and how it fits in to the transportation process and community.
